PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Len Cook

September was a very busy month at the Unit. All of our in-house Sports leagues have started and, as the Tuesday night "Chase the Queen" Pot continues to grow, more people are coming out to the Unit to try their luck. The Tri-Service Meat Draw also continues to do well as do our Friday and Saturday Meat Draws. Thank you all for your continued support.

Our 175th Anniversary was a great success with 128 people enjoying the Dinner and over 200 attending the dance. I have to thank Gord and R.G. for doing the pig and to Marianne and Rick for being in charge of the kitchen and to our servers Elaine and Wendy. Your help was greatly appreciated.

If you did not get a ticket for this event you missed a very enjoyable evening. Thank you to all those who did attend and made it the success it was. Please watch for posters etc. for any other up-coming events. We want to keep the Unit busy.

Our Hall rentals are improving but we would like to do better. If you know someone who is planning an event and are looking for a venue please have them contact our office. Our prices are very reasonable and competitive.

We are still doing the BBQ on the patio but we will have our un-official patio closing BBQ on Friday Oct. 9th. The patio will remain open as long as the weather permits but this will be the last of the BBQ season. Thanks to all who enjoyed it this summer.

Linda and I would like to wish all Members a happy, safe and enjoyable Thanksgiving. We have so much to be thankful for.

LADIES AUXILIARY

Elvia Furutani

Fall has arrived and the Ladies have had their first fall Meeting. Our 175th Anniversary of ANAVETS is over and it was a great success. Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make it happen. Well done.

The Ladies attended the General Meeting in September and President Elvia let our Members know that the Ladies are ok for small functions and Celebrations of Life.

We haven't had any new Members but hopefully the winter months will bring in new Ladies. If you are interested please call Pres. Elvia @ 204-895-2275.

The Ladies will be doing the Cake Table the last Saturday of the month and their meat draws in months that have 5 Saturdays in them.

Some of our Ladies attended functions at other Units this past summer. Unit #1 had a garage sale and pig roast and it was a great day. Pres. Elvia and Beryl lent a hand to Dave Walker and President Len Cook at the BBQ for the Bingo appreciation night for our Bingo Players and staff. It was a good night with quite a few more players out.

We need to give the kitchen a good cleaning once the renovations are completed.

October seems to be shaping up to be an interesting month what with the Thanksgiving Hampers and Halloween on the way.

Don't forget Tuesdays are Chase the Queen night and the Tri-Service meat draw and bake table night. Also the 50/50 draw takes place after the Chase the Queen draw.

The Ladies wish everyone a HAPPY THANKSGIVING and hope you and your Families have a wonderful day.

We had our first General Meeting on September 8, after a nice Summer, with 113 in attendance. The Executive provided the 'goodies', and everyone was happy to meet again. Thank you to the bakers. Another busy year lies ahead, with all our activities.

Golf season ended on 10-Sept-15, with a lunch, following the last game. Winners of the trophies were: Men's Champion- Wally Hamsey and Women's Champion –Mabel Boehmen

Bowling started on 11-Sept-15, with 8 teams of four and some spares as back-up. We can always use spares, so put your name with Roger Briand, and come out and have some fun and exercise.

Plans are underway for our Annual Craft and Bake Sale, held on 17-Oct-15, in the Stillwell Hall. We are accepting any new or used articles for the sale, but no clothes or shoes. You can drop articles off in the barrels, behind the Nevada Booth, in the Unit. We are also collecting non-perishable goods for our hamper. Please check the dates. Baking can dropped off the morning of the sale, before 9:00 am. Come out and support us, and have lunch at our Sandwich Bar. We appreciate all articles.

As at this date Unit 283 has 1076 members.

We wish to remind those members who have not renewed to please make the effort as the cut-off date is fast approaching.

The Membership Committee, Don Sutherland and Elsie Fraser, presented long service pins to a number of members at our 69th anniversary held in July. The period of presentation was from ten years to fifty years.

10 year pin 17 members

15 year pin 23 “

20 year pin 18 “

25 year pin 10 “

30 year pin 5 “

35 year pin 7 “

40 year pin 3 “

45 year pin 4 “

50 year pin 1 “

Congratulations to all of these fine members.

The Unit held a fund raising dinner and dance to celebrate the anniversary of the Army, Navy, Air Force Veterans Association. I had the pleasure of attending, along with my wife, and we had a great time. Our president and his committee did a marvelous job. Also, thanks to Gord Kent and R. J. Hemlow for their fantastic chef duties.

The fall season has now arrived. We hope you take the time to enjoy the beautiful autumn colours.

SENIOR SNOOKER

Dunc Manson

The 2015-16 Senior Men's Snooker League began September 15th with the annual Marcel Bertouille Tournament. It was a double knock out two day tournament with 16 teams. Congratulations to winners, Rae Roberts and Orest Kryschuk and runners up Rick Thain and Morley Barron.

Our regular league play started with the singles on September 21st and the doubles on September 22nd. There are 12 singles and 22 teams in the doubles. We are happy to see the increase from last year. We look forward to a good season and ask you to take note of your play times in order to prevent defaults.

Unfortunately we have already lost one of our members. Emil Feniuk passed away just before the regular season began. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the friends and family. Emil will be missed.

Good luck to all involved in both leagues.

WAYS & MEANS

Bill Sadler

Fall is now upon us. It is sad summer is over but great to see our members returning to the club.

The Ways and Means portfolio has operated smoothly over the summer months with the meat draw, 50/50 draws, and cake table, showing a profit each week.

Over the summer Terry Murray has been scurrying around finding bargains to fill two hamper baskets. Tickets for the basket are on sale with our best little ticket seller, Terry Abrahamson wanting her tickets early so she could start selling at the 55 and over meetings. Barb Sadler has been busy getting volunteers to sell Friday nights and to help Terry Murray Saturday afternoon if needed. The baskets will also have additional prizes of a turkey and a bag of potatoes. Please help support this project. The draw is to be held at the meat draw Oct. 3, 2015.

Talking about Saturday Oct. 3rd, this will be a very busy day at our club as we plan to have seven meat draws with the seventh draw to be all turkeys, followed by the draw for the two hamper baskets, just in time for Thanksgiving.

Talking about Thanksgiving, I on behalf of your executive would like to thank all of you who come our faithfully each week to volunteer and support your club. Without your efforts we would not have a club.

Speaking of volunteers, if you would like to volunteer, please let Barb Sadler or Terry Murray know and we will do our best to find a spot for you.

SHUFFLEBOARD

Our season started on Sept 14 with 12 teams, although we were anticipating up to 14. We welcome new members Tom and Joanne Kolba, not only to Shuffleboard but also as new members to Unit 283! This is a fun league and I want to wish everyone a great season. We are fortunate this year to have two excellent players as spares, Alain Dumonceaux and Darryl Yeo.

During our first round all teams will play each other and in January we will divide into A, B, and C groups. Currently leading in Hangers are Kim Hekl, Joan Broughton, and Faye Davidson with three each, and Joanne Kolba, Sandra Seal, Linda O'Brien and myself with 2 each. Three of the men are tied at 2 each, Stan Jorowski, Bob Hekl and Rae Roberts.

To add to the social aspect of our group we will be celebrating once a month with cake to say Happy Birthday to any member that has a birthday in that month. We also have a 50/50 each week and I would like to thank all of our members and members from the Men's Snooker league that support this effort. Judie Brown has enjoyed back to back wins on this draw!

We were in charge of the meat draw on August 28, and I would like to thank Carol Arnal, Gladys Arnal, Faye Davidson, Don Gillon, Stan Jorowski, Sandra Seal and Ken Cade for all their hard work. These meat draws generate funds for our League so everyone please consider volunteering. Our next one will be Oct 30th.

Well, the leaves are falling, the sun is shining, the days are warm and dry, and the games room is very busy so Fall must officially be here.

We are very happy to have all but one team back this year. We also welcome Wilma back this year. It's great to have you back. Also a big welcome to Cheryl, who is a very eager player and we are looking for a partner for her. We always guarantee a good time. (A good game is up to you.) If you are interested in joining us, please give Kerry Miller or Linda O'Brien a call or drop by on a Thursday evening. We would love to see you.

A big thank you to Darryl and Guy for taking on our snooker clinic this year. As always, we learned a lot, we just need to put it into practice. They make it look so easy.

Our meat draws continue and our next meat draw is November 6. The teams working that night are Diane and Bea, Linda O. and Linda G., and Bev and Cindy.

In the meantime, we would like to wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving. We all have much to be thankful for.

Tri Service Military Veterans Association of Canada 1MB

R.G. Hemlow

With sadness Tri Service Military Veterans Association of Canada Inc. BC informed us on July 8, 2015 we suddenly lost a 35 year veteran and brother. Eric McCALLUM, RIP

We have had a busy summer with our Tuesday meat and bake draws for starters. Here are some of the highlights of this summer we undertook.

- Support the Highway of Hero's Ride.
- Support and have as quest to ANAVETS Veterans Ride Awareness for PTSD.
- Support and volunteered some Friday night meat draws at ANAVETS.
- Couple of members went to the 75th year of Sturgis.
- Support and Volunteered Truck Show.
- Volunteer selling tickets to help Khartum Shiners.
- A few attended The Korean Veterans Association of Canada candle light ceremony.
- Support and volunteer doing a bake sale at ANAVETS No 1 donating $203.60 to ANAVETS No 1.
- Tri Service Military Veterans Association of Canadian 1MB has also donated this summer $1000.00 to ANAVETS #283
- and $4000.00 to Deer Lodge Hospital funds designated to assist Veterans.

The Tri Service Military Veterans Association of Canada is a group of Canadian Veterans and supporters who gather together to renew the bonds of Military Service and promote camaraderie between all Veterans and Veteran Groups of the Canadian Forces, past, present and future. We are a Not-for-Profit group whose goal is to aid and assist Veterans by raising awareness through events and fundraisers in support of Canadian Military/Veteran Charities. If you have any questions or would like information please feel free to ask anyone of us.

CURLING

Judith Brown

Hello curling fans, we are starting another season commencing October 18th 2015. We are still looking for a few more curlers, so if you are interested please sign the posting in the sports room and or the front lobby.

We are a fun league and have proved to have had fun times in the past. Even if you just want to spare, come and join. We play Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. at deer lodge curling club.

We have a 50/50 where the curling teams take turns collecting. This is a lot of fun, especially for the winner, because the team collecting try's to outdo the previous team. Competitive and profitable.....and of course Legion #4 curls right after us, so you can win their 50/50 also.

It would be great to see a few more supporters out.

Curling is scheduled to work the meat draw on October 2nd. I am asking for volunteers to work that Friday. To those of you who always come out and lend a hand, I thank you very much.

Here's hoping we have a fun and profitable curling season, with no injuries. I'll be seeing you October 18th @9:00 a.m.

Speaking from strictly a non-political point of view, many of us who use the 'INTERNET' are deeply concerned with Canada's controversial anti-terrorism bill C-51 which has emerged as a key point in the current election campaign.

Pointing to it's big implications for privacy and surveillance, it is regarded as a commitment to national security and the possibility of additional anti-terror measures by some politicians. Last year concluded more than a decade of debate over 'lawful access' legislation by enacting a bill that provides new law enforcement powers for access to the internet and telecom data. The bill came just as reports revealed that telecom providers faced more than a million requests for such information each year and the Supreme Court of Canada issued its landmark Spencer decision, which ruled that Canadians have a reasonable expectation of privacy in their basic subscriber information, including name, address, and IP address. The upshot of the lawful access legislation and the court ruling is that Canada's leading telecom and internet companies reversed longstanding policies that granted warrantless access to basic subscriber information. Police can now rely on several new warrants to gain access to some information (including 'metadata' that can reveal extensive information about the who, when and where of internet and phone communications), but companies are typically refusing to disclose basic subscriber information without a warrant.

Despite an internal RCMP survey that concluded that the new requirements have had 'no significant negative effects', the tougher privacy standards have been under steady threat. Some lower courts have sought to distinguish the Supreme Court rulings and allow for access to subscriber information without a warrant. Meanwhile, law enforcement officials and government policy makers have quietly been working on a proposal to allow for real-time access to basic subscriber information. The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP) revealed at its August annual conference that officials have partnered with the government to develop a 'reasonable law' in response to the Spence decision. With no comment on details regarding the proposed reforms, but a CACP document indicates that there are three possibilities under consideration. These include: (1) an administrative, non-judicial system that would allow for warrantless access without judicial oversight, (2) a new judicial order that would ensure that courts oversee disclosure, or (3) a combination of a new order that could be issued by an administrative body. The differences between the proposals sound technical, but at their heart raise the question of whether the government will support access to subscriber information.

The CACP indicates that the next scheduled meeting to discuss the issue is planned for November 2015, weeks after the end of the election campaign. The election could determine the future path of Canadian law on access to subscriber information. The issue requires answers to two questions: (1) the support or non-support for the Supreme Court's Spence decision (2) the notion of a reasonable expectation of privacy in subscriber information.

The answers to those two questions will go a long way in determining the privacy protection enjoyed by Canadian internet users, of which I am one.

HEALTH AND WELFARE

911 ???

The U.S. Customs and Border Protection Agency can turn away any Canadian from entrance citing the fact that they had been hospitalized for 'a mental-health episode'. To be able to enter the United States at some future date would require a 'medical clearance' from a U.S. approved doctor.

The hospitalization information being used comes from various Police Forces throughout Canada. When people have a problem they call '911'. 911 is operated by Canadian Police Departments who routinely make notes of events including suicide attempts and mental-health episodes. Some of this information is then added to the RCMP operated Police Information Centre (CPIC) database which is accessible to the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation and other American agencies such as the Department of Homeland Security.

Mental health advocates worry about the type of non-criminal data often collected by the police and shared with foreign governments. The minute you put mental health into police databases you run the risk of people making decisions based on that information. Frequently there is a wrong association between mental health and violence.....that can lead to direct discrimination against an individual. An apparent police record of hospitalization for depression is enough to bar someone from entering the United States.

Under the 'U.S. Immigration and Nationality Act', border agents can reject travellers who are considered to have a physical or mental disorder that could pose a threat to property, safety, or welfare of themselves and/or others. U.S. border agents have turned back Canadians because of mental-health information contained in Canadian police files.

If you're treated by a psychiatrist, much can be learned about the state of your health by a list of your medical appointments and the treatments you received.

It would be extremely troubling if people felt they couldn't phone the police or an ambulance because they were worried about the implications down the road by having the call on record.

(excerpts and discussion taken from 2011-2015)

THE INTERNET

The 'Computer Age' brought a WONDERFUL AND MARVELOUS era of unlimited information about almost any subject you can imagine. Although this is true, we must be careful while dealing with the internet's many traps and snares. Care should always be taken while 'out on the net' as there are numerous elements that can be harmful to the consumer.

As a reminder, Health Canada has in the past warned Canadians about the issue of potentially counterfeit drugs sold on the web sites listed on the NABP not recommended list. The Canadian Regulatory Agency notes that prescription drugs for sale on certain sites in Canada have not been authorized for sale in Canada. The products sold on these sites resemble drugs approved in Canada and contain references to brand names which may lead Canadian consumers to believe the products are safe. Health Canada notes that these drugs are suspected to be counterfeit and it provides additional information available to the consumer. There is a potential that these drugs may contain various impurities and may have the possibility of serious harm to the consumer.

Further information about counterfeit medications and other risks of buying prescription drugs on the internet is available in the Buying Medicine Online section of the NABP web site.
